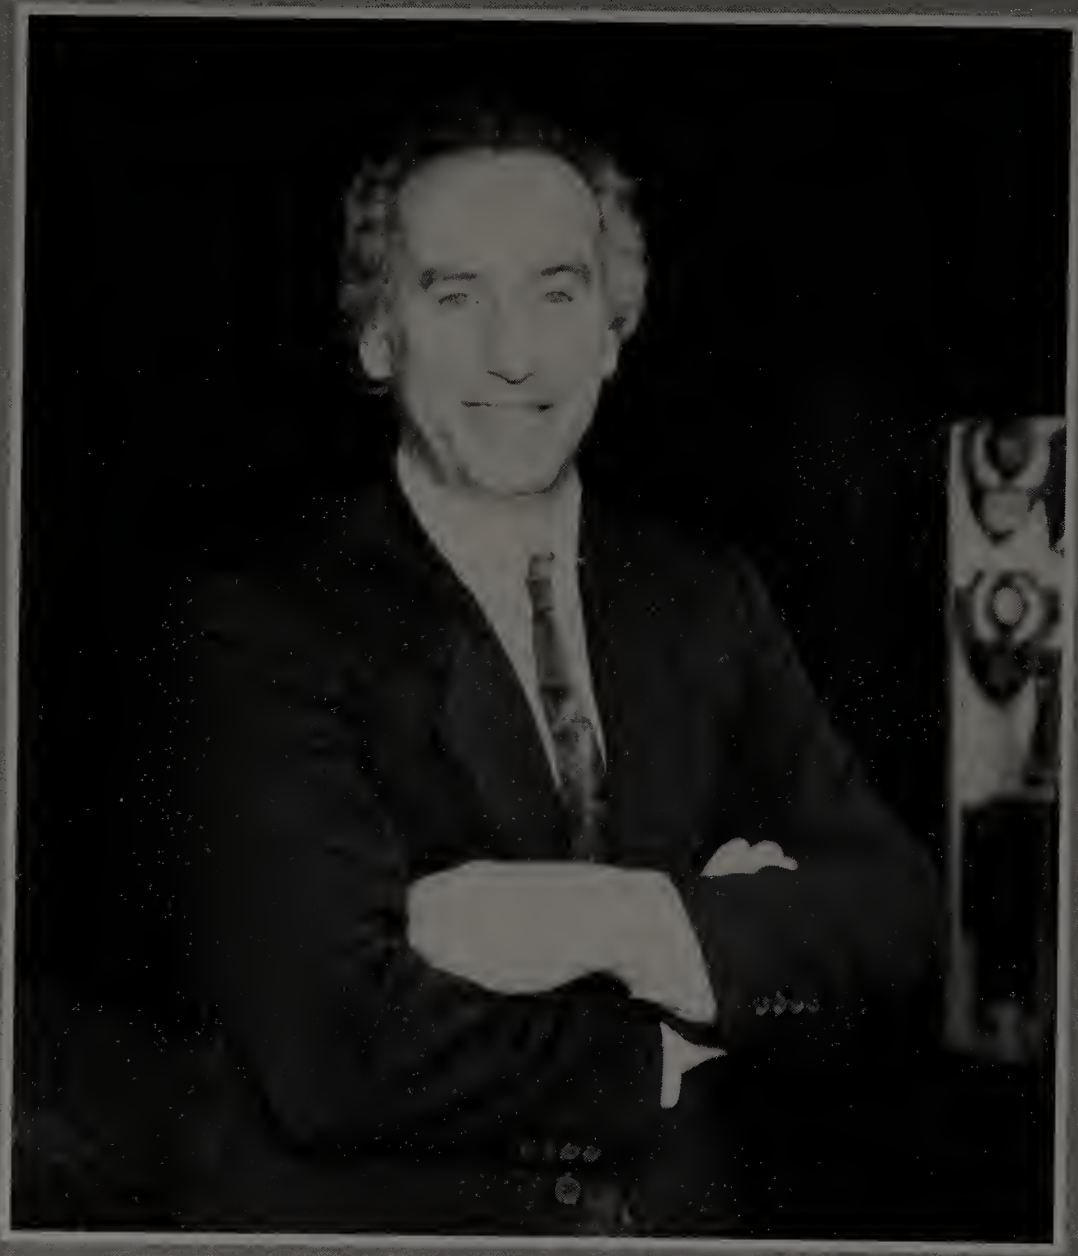
HEADMASTER

Mr. Donald Pellegrini



Headmaster's Message to the Senior Class

As you leave Westie, the Faculty and I wish you much success in the career of your choice and much happiness in your life. As I am sure you are aware, success does not come easy. It takes a lot of hard work, ambition and sometimes sacrifice on your part to get the things in life that you want and need.

You must show compassion towards, and understanding of, your fellow man in order to achieve the success within each of us that leads to the salvation of our society.

The road ahead of you is long and difficult but as you mature in wisdom and age, the road will become shorter and less difficult to travel and your goals will be achieved.

I am personally very proud to have played a small part in nurturing your awareness of the task ahead of you and the formula for success.

Good luck and God bless you!

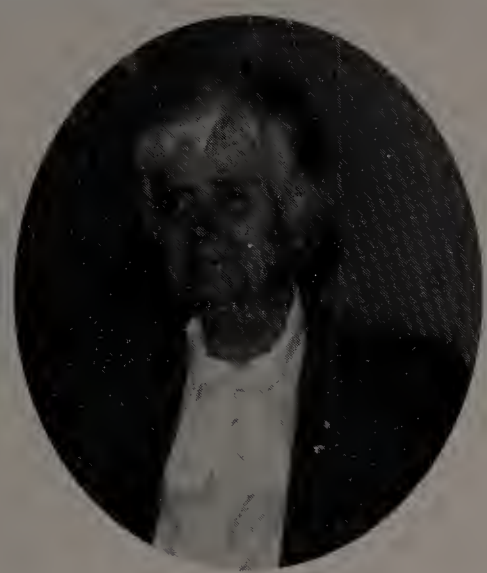
John Miller

Paul Corrigan

After more than 20 years as a teacher of español at both Roslindale and West Roxbury High Schools, Señor Corrigan has ascended the Ivory Tower to teach Spanish at Boston Latin School. ¡Adios y muy buena suerte!

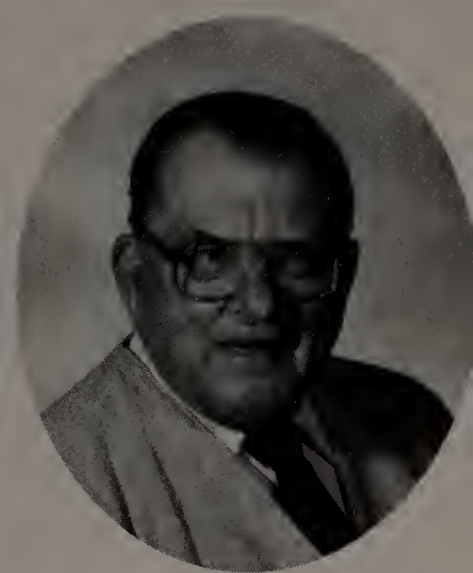
CDR Robert Gillen

The Commander will miss the echoing shouts of "Yes Sir!" from the legions of Westie's N.J.R.O.T.C. cadets who have been militarized under his command. Since he was recently "piped over the side", the scuttlebutt has it that he's relaxing in the shadow of Old Ironsides.



Ruth Morgan

After an illustrious career that took her from Guantanamo Bay to West Roxbury High (via the Burke), Science Department head and classroom teacher Miss Morgan has just begun a well-deserved life of leisure. Under her leadership, Westie has made a strong showing at science fairs, but now she will have more free time to pursue her interest in environmental issues.



John Rudnick

This Renaissance man, our Jack-of-all-trades, came to Westie after 15 years at East Boston High. Captain Xerox has been called upon to rescue many a colleague using his varied technical expertise. This former pharmaceutical salesman-cum-math teacher has retired to Cape Cod to enjoy the 19th hole.

Coach Hilliard

The baseball team of 1991 was young and inexperienced. With a record of three wins, twelve losses, improvement was noticed. The players always went out on the field with three things in mind— HAVE FUN, LEARN and IMPROVE.

Although they lacked experience, Coach Conley said many lessons were learned. The most valuable player was Joe Zenus. Paul Derosa was the most improved player on the team. Other dedicated players were Julian Siganoff, Mark Allen, Keith Stearns, Steve Williams and Paul Romero.

The baseball team of 1992 are looking forward to the baseball season of 1992. They're determined to be a better, tougher and a more invincible team who will get revenge on their 1991 opponents.

Striving for the win!

We got the winning spirit.

Lizbeth shows total determination.

Please let me hit this!

This year's team was made up of hard working though inexperienced players. The majority were freshmen and sophomores who were supported by outstanding senior co-captains Lizbeth Foster and Diana Brown. The best game the team played was against Dorchester. Both times Westie played Dorchester the game went into overtime with a victory for Westie. The most valuable player was Anne Marie Prevost, and the most improved was Debbie Barboutis. The coaches and team look forward to the return of promising underclassmen such as Mirsini Tzigizis and Jane Grigoriadis. They plan to obliterate their opponents!

YEARBOOK

front: Elena Kipriotakis, Aeisha Pringle, Ms. Dwyer-Adviser back: Joselaine Falaise, Jamica Love, Vasil (Bobby) Bryant, Inesita (Punky) Santos-Editor, Lydia Dodd

Without technical assistance from Mr. Oakes, entering those senior profiles would be impossible.

NINETY-TWO

As the final pages of the '92 yearbook go to press, Editor Inesita (Punky) Santos is still the capable lady in control that she's been since September. Planning a layout for his Indoor & Outdoor Track pages, Bobby Bryant looks back on all the work he's accomplished with Aeisha Pringle's help, and wonders what life would be like without Sports Section deadlines. Jamica Love, ever true to her name, continues giving effort and toil wherever and whenever necessary. Another love by another name, Elena K. is busy putting the final touches on her special project on pages 58-59. She really is "most likely to succeed" from what this adviser can tell. Tanya Sims smiling face is always around to see what copy needs to be typed. Joselaine Falaise is laboring over the NJROTC spread and Lydia Dodd is belting out her final ad pages. What a great staff of reliable, conscientious and truly nice people. They've learned how to tackle a difficult task and see it through to completion. They've all earned the respect of this yearbook advisers.
